

Organ Grinder Promo - Joe Hartfeil

Joe is a professional radio announcer who has found community radio immensely more satisfying than his experience at commercial stations, due to both the "community" and "radio" parts of the equations. He has also studied film, and currently works with another local non-profit organization, Metro Cinema.

About the Audio

Produced and written by Joe Hartfeil. Evan Terlesky - voice of vendor. Rory Storm - voice of patron. In this spot, a street corner vendor hawks his wares: a variety of organs ranging from those "big churchy ones" to the Hammond B3, which goes "great with kraut... rock, that is." He then goes on to tell his intrigued customer about the ultimate haven for fans of the organ, Joe Hartfeil's specialty show "The Organ Grinder" on CJSR FM 88.5, Wednesdays from 1-2 pm.
