Name of project/grant:

Rendez-vous de la Francophonie

Name of producing station:

Amherst Island Radio – CJAI 92.1 FM

Name of producer:

Judy Bierma & Terry McGinn

Contact information of producer or station coordinator:

judybierma@gmail.com & ttmcginn@gmail.com

Short bio of producer (1 paragraph, 250 max words):

Judy Bierma grew up on Amherst Island as “The Cheesemaker’s daughter” and has taken on that persona in her life as a radio host and local columnist. Judy has a passion for local issues, the people of Amherst Island, and their histories. Terry McGinn is a local market gardener, radio host, and professional volunteer who can’t say “no” to a good committee meeting.

1-2 Sentence description of the show:

We talk to two local residents who have lifelong connections to the French language and francophone culture, but who come from quite different backgrounds.

Longer description of show/content (500 word max, to go on website -please provide shortened detail on each information update or audio capsule):

Michele LeLay’s long career as an educator and activist has revolved around the French language and access for those who speak it. Growing up in Montreal, and moving to Ottawa before it was bilingual, Michele tells us about being at the forefront of Ontario’s foray into bilingualism. Sally Bowen of Topsy Farms joins us to relate her discovery, passion, and lifelong attachment to the French language and francophone culture, and how she brings it front and centre whenever possible in her life as a farmer on Amherst Island.
